

DANTES Eligible Military Categories of Examinees

- Military personnel (active and reserve).
- DANTES-funded eligible civilian employees and spouses of participating Reserve Component and Coast Guard personnel.
- DANTES-funded Department of Defense Acquisition civilian employees.
- Adult family members of military and DoD employees.

Acceptable Forms of Identification for Military Test Takers

The test administrator must verify that the military or military-approved candidates possess the following identification to qualify for a military funded DSST examination. Please be prepared to provide the appropriate identification information when you arrive to test.

Service Members:

- A current Armed Forces of the United States Common Access Card, and one (1) other state or government picture identification with signature (typically a state driver's license), or valid passport.

Eligible Civil Service Personnel:

- A current Armed Forces of the United States Common Access Card, and one (1) other state or government picture identification with signature (typically a state driver's license), or valid passport; OR
- A Federal Civil Service Identification containing a picture and signature; OR
- Federal Civil Service Identification (without picture and signature), and one (1) other state or government picture identification with signature (typically a state driver's license), or valid passport.

Department of Defense Acquisition Personnel

Refers to the government contracting personnel. There are only 6 DSST test titles they are authorized to test on a DANTES-funded basis:

Principles of Statistics; Principles of Finance; Principles of Financial Accounting; Personnel / Human Resource Management; Organizational Behavior; and Business Law II

- A current Armed Forces of the United States Common Access Card, and one (1) other state or government picture identification with signature (typically a state driver's license), or valid passport.

Eligible Spouses:

- A current United States Uniformed Services ID Card.

NOTE: Because the currently used Common Access Card does not contain a signature of the prospective examinee, national test centers must request a second form of identification.
